STATE OF VERMONT. Executive Department. Brattleboro, July 5, 1862.

To the people of Vermont :-The president of the United States calls into the service of the country an additional force of three hundred thousand men, and expresses the desire that "they may be enrolled without delay, so as to bring this unnecessary and injurious civil war to a speedy and satisfactory conclusion."

Each citizen should consider this appeal as addressed directly to him, and at once enquire what he can do for his country, directly, if may be, and if not, indirectly, by en- St. Johnsbury Business Directory couraging and assisting those able and willing to take up arms and advance to the scenes of conflict. Any one can see that, even though our arms are everywhere victorious, additional troops are needed to garrison and hold the numerous important points taken; and much more are they needed to ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW & SOLICITOR IN CHANCERY. prevent or repair reverses that may happen.

It cannot be necessary to more than be re- Bank, Sr Johnsbuy, Vt. ly remind the citizens of Vermont that the crisis of the rebellion has come; and that by hesitation and delay, it may be allowed to linger and invite foreign interference in its behalf, or by such a new, prompt and powerful rally to arms, as the loyal people of the country are abundantly able to make, it can be crushed and annihilated. The present, then is no time for hesitation or delay. Let the response from Vermont be prompt and patriotic, and in consonance with all her past history. Let no young man, capable of bearing arms in defence of his country and its wise and beneficent government, linger at this important period in the war. Let no one hinder those who are brave and competent to fight the battles of the country, from going forth to that patriotic, righteous and needful service. It is of the last importance that the resources and strength of our government should now in a large measure put forth, and its power and stability fully proved and firmly established. Let the president of the United States feel the strengthening influence of our prompt and hearty response to his late call for additional troops, and those brave men. our fathers, brothers and sons, now in the field, struggling to the death to uphold our cause, be cheered and encouraged by the intelligence that many more of the "Green Mountain Boys" are rapidly enrolling for the service of their country, and will soon advance to its defence. Much more might be said to you fellow citizens, but a few words to the brave and patriotic is sufficient. Time now, is everything. Let there be no delay for a more convenient season. Let it be said that Vermont is one of the first states to respond with her quota-composed of volunteers, ready for the service.

An order from the adjutant general of Vermont will indicate the details of further necessary organization. FREDERICK HOLBROOK, Governor of Vermont.

STATE OF VERMONT. ADJUTANT AND INSPECTOR GENERAL'S 7 Office, Woodstock, July 7, 1862. General Order No. 7.

In pursuance of a requisition by the president of the United States upon the governor of Vermont, and in consideration of the necessity of more troops from Vermont for Union thereby indicated, and in reliance upcitizens of the State, which demands, that all the assistance needed by government shall be afforded promptly and without question, it is hereby ordered, that an additional regiment of infantry, to be be denominated the tenth regiment of Vermont volunteers, be immediately raised and organized within this state, to serve in the army of the United States for the term of three years, unless sooner discharged. It is believed and ex- DEALER IN DRY GOODS, CROCKERY HARDWARE pected by the commander in chief, that the burden thereby imposed upon the people of Vermont will be cheerfully assumed, and that every true and loyal citizen will exert his utmost endeavors to procure a prompt response to the call of the president.

OUR LOSSES -The Washington Star says the number of Union killed in the seven days' battles has been reduced to eighteen hundred or less. Our total loss in killed. wounded and missing, according to official accounts the president caused to be rendered while recently with the army, was about eleven thousand. The rebels claim to have four thousand two hundred prisoners, including wounded, and five thousand of our wounded have already been sent North on steamers. The hourly return of stragglers continues to lessen the estimate of the killed.

O A R P E T I N G! four, with compartments—each box containing a bottle of Dr Hurd's Mouth Wash, and Tooth Ache Drops, a box of Tooth Powder, the Neu-CILKS, SHAWLS, & RICH DRESS ralgia Plaster, and a valuable little Treatise on Teeth and their Diseases the best means of preserving them, and the proper treatment of Children's Teeth, worth of itself the entire cost to young man or woman, or parents with young children; with sundry other miscellaneous articles; price per package one dollar, or six packages for $5, sent by express as directed. As the express charges are not much, if any, more on a dozen than on one, it is far cheaper to order six or a dozen packages at one time. A large six or a dozen packages at one time. A large family will want all, or the surplus can be disposed of to neighbors with public benefit, for no one can estimate how much pain, suffering, unhappiness, and disfigurement, expense, loss of time and money would be saved to the country if every family to-day had one of these packages, which, in itself, is a complete set of Dental Remedies. Address Wm B Hurd & Co, Tribune Buildings, New York, and write name and address plainly. That remittances may be made is now opening a very large and splendid assortdress plainly. The attention of country Merchants as well as the public generally, is respectfully invited to this Stock.

Having been long connected with some of the largest houses in New York. Philadelphia, New Orleans and in the West Indies, thereby gaining facilities for purchasing goods at low rates—confining myself exclusively to Dry Goods, and buying in large quantities—I feel confident I can do better with these articles than anything in market. They are new, useful, low priced, and we are spending thousands in advertising them for the benefit of agents. Boxel of the subscribers offer for sale 500 cords of wood or prepared for the stove—part soft and part hard. Also, 400 cords of 4-foot wood. Application for wood may be made to either of us, or to Daniels & Cook, Railroad street, who are authorized to missions to those who prove themselves efficient
